

Numbers, Chapter 36

The Book of Numbers ends with Deut. 1.5a.

The Book of Deuteronomy starts at Deut. 1.5b.

36<sup>1</sup>

And the heads of the clans of the family of the descendants of Gil'ad,
the son of Machir,
the son of M'nasheh,
and of the families
of the descendants of Yosef,

A
B

A

A

approached.

B'

And addressed

A

B

Moses and the leaders,

B

the heads of the clans / of the people / of Isra'el.

B'

<sup>2</sup> And they said,

A

A

B'

"ADONAI ordered my lord

B

to give by lot the land to be inherited

by the people of Isra'el, and my lord was ordered by ADONAI

B'

to give the inheritance of our kinsman Zelophehad to his daughters.

<sup>3</sup>

And if they get married to anyone

A

B

belonging to another of the tribes of the sons of Isra'el, then their inheritance will be taken away from the inheritance of our ancestors and it will be added to the inheritance of the tribe

B

B'

they will then belong to.

Thus it will be taken away

A

B'

from the sum total of our inheritance

<sup>4</sup>

when the Jubilee of the sons of Isra'el comes:

their inheritance will be added

B

to the land possessed

by the tribe they then will belong to;

and be subtracted

B'

from the inheritance belonging to the tribe of our ancestors."

<sup>5</sup> And Moses gave this order to the people of Isra'el according to the mouth of ADONAI :

"The tribe of the descendants of Yosef is right in what it says.

<sup>6</sup>

Here is what ADONAI has ordered concerning the daughters of Zelophehad:

'Let them be married to whomever they think best, but they must marry only into a family from their father's tribe.

<sup>7</sup>

In this way no inheritance of the people of Isra'el will move from one tribe to another;

for each of the people of Isra'el is to hold on to the land for inheritance belonging to his father's tribe.

<sup>8</sup>

Every daughter who possesses an inheritance in any tribe of the people of Isra'el is to become the wife of someone from the family of her father's tribe, so that every one of the people of Isra'el will stay in possession of his ancestors' inheritance.

<sup>9</sup>

Thus no inheritance will move from one tribe to another, for each of the tribes of the people of Isra'el will hold on to its own inheritance."

B

|                         |                                                                    |                                                        |    |    |
|-------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------|----|----|
| 10                      | As ADONAI had ordered Moses                                 | A                                                      | A  | B' |
|                         | so the daughters of Zelophehad did.                                |                                                        |    |    |
| 11                      | Machlah, Tirtzah, Hoglah, Milkah and No'ah                         | B                                                      |    |    |
|                         | all got married to sons of their father's brothers.                |                                                        |    |    |
| 12                      | They were married into the families of the descendants of M'nasheh | B'                                                     |    |    |
|                         | the son of Joseph,                                                 |                                                        |    |    |
|                         | and their inheritance remained                              |                                                        |    |    |
|                         | in the tribe of their father's family.                             |                                                        |    |    |
| 13                      | These are the commands and regulations which ADONAI gave    | A                                                      | B  |    |
|                         | through Moses                                               | B                                                      |    |    |
|                         | to the sons of Isra'el                                             |                                                        |    |    |
|                         | on the plains of Moab,                                             | B'                                                     |    |    |
|                         | beside the Jordan                                           |                                                        |    |    |
|                         | (of Jericho).                                                      |                                                        |    |    |
| 1                       | These are the words which Moses spoke to all Isra'el | A                                                      | B' |    |
|                         | beyond the Jordan,                                          |                                                        |    |    |
|                         | in the desert,                                                     |                                                        |    |    |
|                         | in the 'Aravah,                                                    |                                                        |    |    |
|                         | opposite Suf,                                                      |                                                        |    |    |
|                         | between Pa'ran and Tofel,                                          |                                                        |    |    |
|                         | and Lavan, and Hazerot and Di-Zahav,                               |                                                        |    |    |
| 2                       | eleven days' journey                                        |                                                        |    |    |
|                         | from Horev to Kadesh-Barnea                                        |                                                        |    |    |
|                         | by way of Mount Se'ir.                                             |                                                        |    |    |
| 3                       | And it came to pass                                                | B                                                      |    |    |
|                         | on the first day of the eleventh month                      |                                                        |    |    |
|                         | of the fortieth year.                                       |                                                        |    |    |
|                         | Moses spoke to the people of Isra'el,                       |                                                        |    |    |
|                         | reviewing everything ADONAI had ordered him                 |                                                        |    |    |
|                         | to tell them.                                                      |                                                        |    |    |
| 4                       | This was after he had defeated Sichon,                             | B'                                                     |    |    |
|                         | king of the Emori,                                                 |                                                        |    |    |
|                         | who lived in Heshbon,                                              |                                                        |    |    |
|                         | and 'Og,                                                           |                                                        |    |    |
|                         | king of Bashan,                                                    |                                                        |    |    |
|                         | who lived in 'Ashtarot, at Edre'i.                                 |                                                        |    |    |
| 5                       | there,                                                             |                                                        |    |    |
|                         | beyond the Jordan,                                          |                                                        |    |    |
|                         | in the land of Moab,                                               |                                                        |    |    |
| DEUTERONOMY BEGINS HERE |                                                                    | (GIVEN first H 48 letters R 48 letters W 48 letters T) |    |    |
|                         | Moses began to explain this law,                            | A                                                      | A  |    |
|                         | saying:                                                     |                                                        |    |    |
| 6                       | "ADONAI spoke to us in Horeb.                                      |                                                        |    |    |
|                         | He said,                                                           |                                                        |    |    |
|                         | 'You have lived long enough by this mountain.                      | B                                                      |    |    |
| 7                       | Turn, get moving and go to the hill-country of the Emori           |                                                        |    |    |
|                         | and all the places near there in the 'Aravah, the hill-country,    | B'                                                     |    |    |
|                         | the Sh'felah, the Negev and by the seashore —                      |                                                        |    |    |
|                         | the land of the Kena'ani, and the L'vanon,                         |                                                        |    |    |
|                         | as far as the great river,                                         |                                                        |    |    |
|                         | the Euphrates River.                                               |                                                        |    |    |
| 8                       | I have set the land before you!                                    | A                                                      | B  |    |
|                         | Go in, and take possession of the land ADONAI swore to give        |                                                        |    |    |
|                         | to your ancestors Avraham, Yitz'chak and Ya'akov,                  |                                                        |    |    |
|                         | and their descendants after them.' .....                           |                                                        |    |    |